LIBRARY
AUGUSTA COLLEGE

Your desk at school.

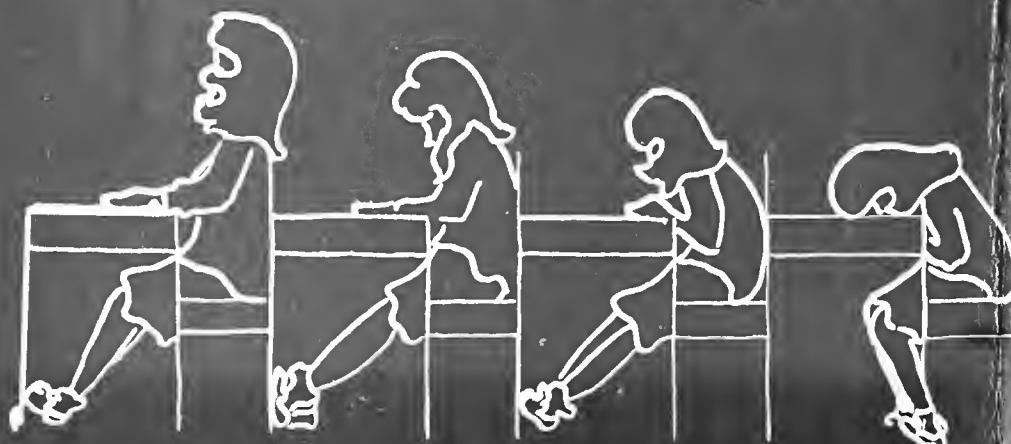

Waiting for the bus
With books piled high,
If it doesn't come soon
I'll surely die.

If you are not
a studious lass,
Put up books
and knit in class.

Alert and attentive
Sit up the front rows
But the far away pupil
Sleepier grows.

The time that is worse
Than all the rest,
Is when sweet teacher says
"Girls, take a test."

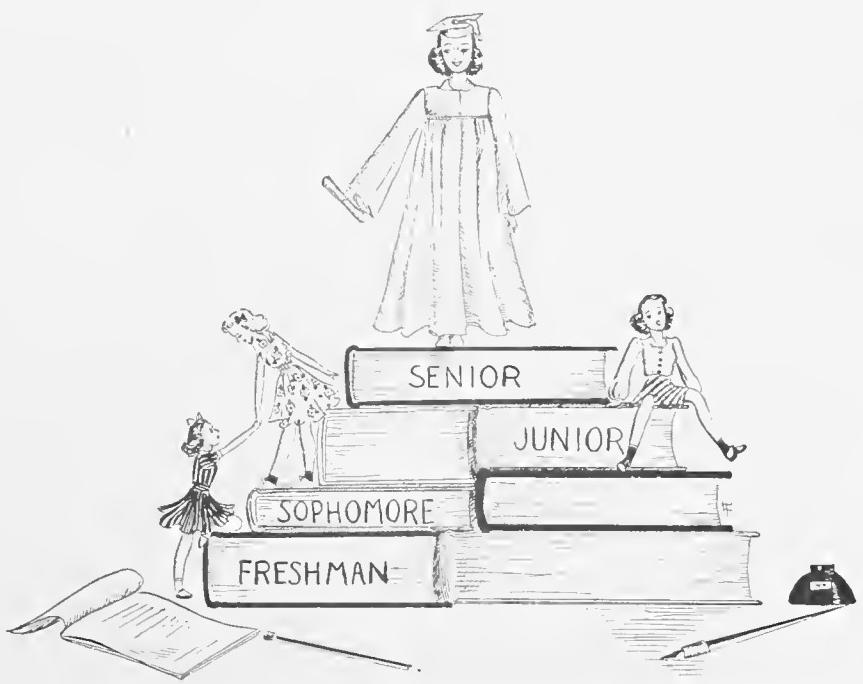

In school costume
I'm good on looks.
But style goes
When I haul my books.

And when to class
A lassie goes,
'Twould ruin all to
have a shiny nose.

If you like to see
teachers glare
Take out a comb
and fix your hair.

THOMAS HARRY GARRETT

FOREWORD

TO THE STUDENT BODY . . .

Take this book. It is yours. We have made it from your experiences at Tubman during the school year 1945-1946. We present this volume in the hope that as you turn these pages you will realize that you are Tubman and that the essential spirit of Tubman is youth—eager, ambitious youth, happy at work and at play. May this be for you a record of cherished memories.

Well had the boding tremblers learned to trace
The day's disasters in his morning face;
Full well they laughed, with counterfeited glee,
At all his jokes, for many a joke had he;
Full well the busy whisper, circling round,
Conveyed the dismal tidings when he frowned.
Yet he was kind, or, if severe in aught,
The love he bore to learning was in fault.

Our student government organization is a member of the National Association of Student Councils and a charter member of the Georgia Association. Every girl in Tubman is a member. The Student Council is made up of officers elected by and from the student body at large; representatives from each home room chosen by popular vote; representatives from each school organization chosen by their respective organizations; and advisers appointed by the principal of the school. The Principal himself, is the chief adviser.

The purpose of student government is to train for citizenship under our republican form of government, to discover and develop leadership, and to promote a higher standard of conduct now and after graduation. The Council makes minor regulations governing student activities and all recommendations on school management made by it to the faculty are given respectful consideration. Its aim is to encourage us to govern ourselves so that we may be worthy to have a voice in governing others.

GETTING A PAPER CUT is sometimes fun, but it is never a picnic.

GUILL

ROUNTREE

If we print jokes, people say we are silly.

If we don't, they say we are too serious.

If we clip things from other papers, we are too lazy to write 'em ourselves.

If we don't we are too fond of our own stuff.

If we print contributions, the paper is filled with junk.

If we don't, we don't appreciate true genius.

Now, like as not, someone will say we swiped this piece from some other paper.

WE DID.

GIRL RESERVES

The three-fold purpose of the Girl Reserves, to develop its members mentally, physically, and spiritually, finds its fulfillment in the well-rounded programs of the five clubs. You will find us ready for hayrides, picnics, parties galore! --- but you will find us ready to do some clear, straightforward thinking about our world and our lives in the making.

SPANISH CLUB

"LAS MANANITAS"

"Las Mananitas" derives its name from the song "Las Mananitas" which means literally the "wake-uppers". And indeed the members of the Spanish Club do wake-up an interest in Spanish and Latin-American history, ideas, thoughts, and customs.

Members of the Spanish 41 and 42 classes compose the Spanish Club. The Spanish Club meets once a month at the home of a member. There is always a program in Spanish which usually consists of a Spanish play, Spanish games, and Spanish songs. The colors of "Las Mananitas" are red, green, and yellow. Miss Miller, the Spanish teacher, is the faculty sponsor.

The motto of the Spanish Club is "No se aventura, no pasa el mar." That is: Nothing ventured, nothing gained."

The Latin Club consists of the eleven Juniors who are planning to take Senior Latin. The club was organized in January with meetings scheduled for every other Wednesday. The meetings are held at the homes of different members where plays and programs are presented. These programs, which are on Roman mythology, are sometimes given in Latin.

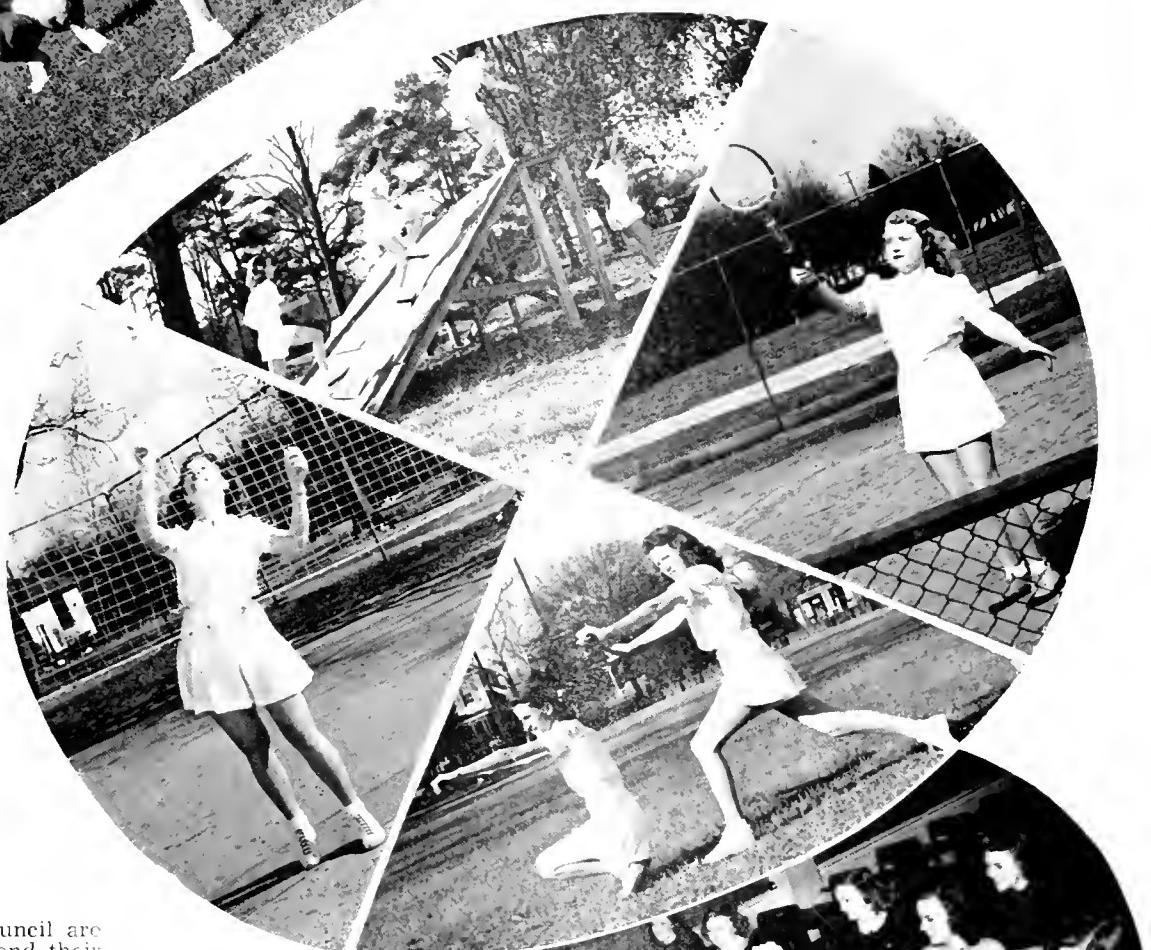

ATHLETIC ACTIVITIES

JOYCE JAMES, President

This year's intramural program exceeds all previous ones in activities and participation.

The 1946 Senior class captured the championship cup for the third successive year.

The members of the Athletic Council are chosen for their interest in sports and their all round good sportsmanship. There are six girls chosen from the Sophomore, Junior, and Senior classes.

The council plans and maintains the intramural program. Every girl in Tubman belongs to the Athletic Association and she may exercise that membership by entering into each of the school sports.

Ring tennis, volley ball, basket ball and soft ball are the extra curricular sports in order of presentation. Seasonal tournaments of ping pong, shuffle board, badminton and tennis offer students an opportunity for individual achievement.

Through enthusiasm, participation, and sportsmanship, school spirit has been strengthened.

For the first time in many years Tubman entered interscholastic basket ball competition. In spite of a slow start, the team won all interscholastic home games except one, which was lost by only two points.

As a member of the Augusta Basket Ball League, the team found its rating at the close of the season respectfully near the middle.

The Tubman Honor Society, Charter of which was granted the fourth day of April, nineteen hundred and forty, by the National Council, is one of about three thousand such organizations among the secondary schools of our country. It is a chapter of the National Honor Society founded in the year 1921 by the National Association of Secondary School Principals. The primary objective of the organization was to promote scholarship. However since this seemed too narrow a requirement, four fundamental virtues were fixed for membership. They are character, leadership, scholarship, service. The picture shows the members and two faculty founders looking over the Charter, the gift of our beloved organizer, Mr. T. H. Garrett. Members of the Honor Society are active in every phase of Tubman's activities. Each year they sponsor some form of community service.

OUR SCRAP BOOK

We think our fathers fools, so wise we grow
Our wiser sons, no doubt, will think us so.

Alexander Pope.

"Fight on, my men," cried Andrew Barton,
"I'm hurt, but I'm not slain:
"I'll lay me down and bleed a while
"And then I'll fight again!"

The best laid schemes o' mice an' men
Gang aft agley.
An' lea'e us naught but grief an' pain.
For promised joy!

Robert Burns.

How do I love thee? Let me count the ways.
I love thee to the depth and breadth and height
My soul can reach, when feeling out of sight
For the ends of Being and ideal Grace.
I love thee to the level of everyday's
Most quiet need, by sun and candlelight.
I love thee freely, as men strive for Right;
I love thee purely, as they turn from Praise.
I love thee with the passion put to use
In my old griefs, and with my childhood's faith.
I love thee with a love I seemed to lose
With my lost saints,—I love thee with the breath,
Smiles, tears, of all my life!—and, if God choose,
I shall but love thee better after death.

Elizabeth Barrett Browning.

What tho' on hamely fare we dine.
Wear odden-grey, an' a' that?
Gie fools their silks, and knaves their wine—
A man's a man for a' that,
For a' that, an' a' that,
Their tinsel show, an' a' that.
The honest man, tho' e'er sae poor,
Is king o' men for a' that.

Robert Burns.

My heart leaps up when I behold
A rainbow in the sky:
So was it when my life began:
So is it now I am a man:
So be it when I shall grow old.
Or let me die!
The Child is father of the Man:
And I could wish my days to be Bound each to each in natural piety.

William Wordsworth.

Tomorrow, and tomorrow, and tomorrow.
Creeps in this petty pace from day to day,
To the last syllable of recorded time;
And all our yesterdays have lighted fools
The way to dusty death. Cut, out, brief candle!
Life's but a walking shadow; a poor player
That struts and frets his hour upon the stage
And then is heard no more. It is a tale
Told by an idiot, full of sound and fury,
Signifying nothing.

William Shakespeare.

Good-nature and good-sense must ever join;
To err is human, to forgive, divine.

Alexander Pope.

"Beauty is truth, truth beauty"—that is all
Ye know on earth, and all ye need to know.

John Keats.

Kings may be blest but Tam was glorious,
O'er a' the ill o' life victorious!

But:
Think! ye may buy the joys o'er dear:
Remember Tam C'Shanter's mare.

Robert Burns.

I burn my candle at both ends
It will not last the night
But, O, my foes; and Ah, my friends
It gives a lovely light!

Full many a gem of purest ray serene
The dark unfathomed caves of ocean bear;
Full many a flower is born to blush unseen,
And waste its sweetness on the desert air.

Thomas Gray.

I love not man the less, but Nature more,
From these our interviews, in which I steal
From all I may be or have been before,
To mingle with the Universe, and feel
What I can ne'er express, yet cannot all conceal.

George Gordon, Lord Byron.

Let not Ambition mock their useful toil,
Their homely joys, and destiny obscure;
Nor Grandeur hear, with disdainful smile,
The short and simple annals of the poor.

Thomas Gray.

In the Spring a fuller crimson comes upon the robin's breast;
In the Spring the wanton lapwing gets himself
another crest;
In the Spring a livelier iris changes on the bur-
nish'd dove;
In the Spring a young man's fancy lightly turns to thoughts of love.

Alfrd Lord Tennyson.

We look before and after,
And pine for what is not:
Our sincerest laughter
With some pain is fraught;
Our sweetest songs are those that tell of saddest thought.

Percy Bysshe Shelley.

Stone walls do not a prison make.
Nor iron bars a cage;
Minds innocent and quiet take
That for an hermitage;
If I have freedom in my love
And in my soul am free,
Angels alone, that soar above,
Enjoy such liberty.

Richard Lovelace.

Nough't had, all's spent,
Where our desire is got without content.
William Shakespeare.

Teach me to feel another's woe,
To hide the fault I see;
That mercy I to others show,
That mercy show to me.
Alexander Pope.

Yet this inconstancy is such
As you too will adore;
I could not love thee, dear, so much,
Loved I not honor more.
Richard Lovelace.

My Mistress' eyes are nothing like the Sun;
Coral is far more red than her lips' red;
If snow be white, why then her breasts are dun;
If hairs be wires, black wires grow on her head.
I have seen Roses damask'd red and white,
But no such Roses see I in her cheeks;
And in some perfumes is there more delight
Than in the breath that from my Mistress reeks.
I love to hear her speak, yet well I know
That Music hath a far more pleasing sound;
I grant I never saw a goddess go;
My Mistress, when she walks, treads on the ground:
And yet, by heaven, I think my love as rare
As any she belied with false compare.
William Shakespeare.

A little learning is a dang'rous thing;
Drink deep, or tast not the Pierian spring.
Alexander Pope.

A perfect Woman, nobly planned,
To warn, to comfort, and command;
And yet a Spirit still, and bright
With something of angelic light.
William Wordsworth.

Whan that Aprille with his shoures soote
The droghte of Marche hath perced to the roote,
And bathed every veyne in swich licour,
Of which vertu engendered in the flour;
Whan Zephirus eek with his swete breeth
Inspired hath in every holt and heeth
The tendre croppes, and the younge sonne
Hath in the Ram his halfe cours y-ronne,
And smale fowles maken melodye,
That slepen al the night with open ye,
(So priketh hem nature in his corages);
Than longen folk to goon on pilgrimages.
Geoffrey Chaucer.

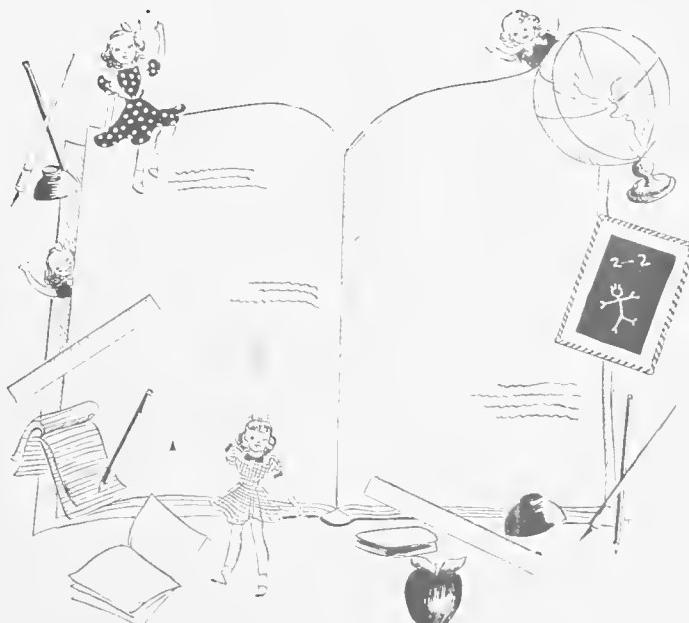

All the world's a stage,
And all the men and women merely players.
They have their exits and their entrances
And one man in his time plays many parts,
His acts being seven ages. At first the infant,

Mewling and puking in the nurse's arms.
And then the whining schoolboy, with his satchel
And shining morning face, creeping like snail
Unwillingly to school. And then the lover,
Sighing like furnace, with a woeful ballad
Made to his mistress' eyebrow. Then a soldier,
Full of strange oaths, and bearded like the pard,
Jealous in honor, sudden, and quick in quarrel,
Seeking the bubble reputation
Even in the cannon's mouth. And then the justice,
In fair round belly with good capon lined,
With eyes severe and beard of formal cut,
Full of wise saws and modern instances;
And so he plays his part. The sixth age shifts
Into the lean and slippered pantaloon,
With spectacles on nose and pouch on side,
His youthful hose, well saved, a world too wide
For his shrunk shank; and his big manly voice,
Turning again toward childish treble, pipes
And whistles in his sound. Last scene of all,
That ends this strange eventful history,
Is second childhoodness and mere oblivion.
Sans teeth, sans eyes, sans taste, sans everything.

William Shakespeare.

One who never turned his back but marched breast forward,
Never doubted clouds would break,
Never dreamed, tho' right were worsted, wrong
would triumph,
Held we fall to rise, are baffled to fight better.
Sleep to wake.

Robert Browning.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

WE, THE SENIOR CLASS OF TUBMAN HIGH SCHOOL, 1946, being of sound health and feeble mind, do hereby declare and publish this document as our Last Will and Testament:

Item one: I, Betty Patterson, do will and bequeath to Meta Meiners my own special ability to keep the bench warm during a basketball game.

Item two: I, Doris Matheny, do will and bequeath to Margie McConnell my ability to get perfect results from Chemistry experiments.

Item three: We, Mary Frances Phillips and Hortense Walters, do will and bequeath to Lorraine Cadle our ability to follow Miss Marshall's confusing instructions.

Item four: I, Betty Guill, do will and bequeath to Ellen Merry my midnight oil to grease the wheels of the Tubman Times.

Item five: I, Barbara Bassford, do will and bequeath to Katharine Phinizy my superb linquistic ability.

Item six: I, Betty Sacre, do will and bequeath my line to any junior who gets her wires crossed as much as I do.

Item seven: I, Barbara Smith, do will and bequeath to my sister Maxine my extra half unit.

Item eight: I, Susanne Wilcox, do will and bequeath to Miss Braddy, my treasured brown moccasins to satisfy her fascination for them.

Item nine: We, Mary Bailey and Margie Ballard, do will and bequeath our profound knowledge of medicine to anyone who keeps First Aid, in hopes that they can combine caring for the sick and the latest gossip as we did.

Item ten: We, the members of the outstanding club, the Holy Alliance, Jane Jackson, Joyce James, Frances Love, Polly Stephens, Bootsie Butler, and Shirley Ragsdale, do will and bequeath to the chosen six of the Junior A2 Class our most terrible traits.

Item eleven: I, Carolyn Stratacos, do will and bequeath to Ethel Smith my ability to stay in Gardelle's all day, C. C. C. at night; and pass all my exams with honors.

Item twelve: I, Harriet Heins, do will and bequeath my restless and consistent punctuality to Louise Claussen.

Item thirteen: I, Billie Fell, do will and bequeath to Margaret Padgett my ability to pass Miss Comey's re-exams.

Item fourteen: We, Edna Hasty, Mary Jordan, and Hazel Frierson, do will and bequeath to the Junior Commercial students the privilege of fighting over typewriters.

Item fifteen: I, Sue Gay, do will and bequeath to Kathleen Cheesborough my place in detention class.

Item sixteen: I, Margaret Baynard, do will and bequeath to Helen Evans the full rights to my pet words, "ludicrous" and "utterly vile."

Item seventeen: We, Bootsie Butler and Frances Love, do will and bequeath to any freshman our short bangs in hopes that theirs will be long when they graduate.

Item eighteen: I, Jean Anderson, do will and bequeath my natural blonde hair to Ethel Smith so that her streaks of H₂O₂ will no longer be lonely.

Item nineteen: I, Mary Bailey, do will and bequeath to Katharine Phinizy my ability to blush in all harmonious shades of red.

Item twenty: I, Carolyn Lee, do will and bequeath to Margie Joyner the points that were lost when demerits were subtracted from my grade.

Item twenty-one: We, the "T.B.'s" of the Tubman Varsity Basketball team do will and bequeath to any freshman, sucker enough to accept, our ability to sit on the bench.

Item twenty-two: I, Virginia Dover, do will and bequeath to Ann Foster, my desire for her to hold Fraser as I have held.

Item twenty-three: I, Fancheon Keener, do will and bequeath my slim figure to Mary Parrish.

Item twenty-four: I, Mary Wade Spradley, do will and bequeath to Charlotte Drawdy, the great honor of taking Frank O'Connor to the Senior Dance of '47.

Item twenty-five: I, Joan Guillebeau, do will and bequeath to Carolyn Geiger my habit of primping in class, in hopes that she will be more successful than I.

Item twenty-six: I, Bette Skinner, do will and bequeath to Jean Grear my ability to jitterbug with Billy Seiffert.

Item twenty-seven: I, Martha Tucker, do will and bequeath to the entire faculty my most cherished possession, my ability to manage always to return to Tubman each September.

Item twenty-eight: We, the Senior Class of 1946 do will and bequeath to the class of 1947:

The many wonderful Senior Privileges that we did not enjoy.
Our favorite recess (pardon us -- break -- lunch -- relaxation) spot in the yard in the hopes that they will enjoy it as much as we did.
Our surplus membership in the Honor Society.
The ability to attract the incoming freshmen as we have attracted the freshmen of 1945.

The DETENTION CLASS—the place where old friends meet; where light entertainment is furnished; where there are pleasant surroundings with enjoyable company; where there is open house from 2:20 through 2:55 every afternoon, Monday through Friday. Along with this we will and bequeath our motto:
DETENTION FOREVER.

Signed, sworn to, sealed, and delivered before us this thirtieth day of May, nineteen hundred and forty-six, A. D. .

"FOR TO HER OUR HEARTS BELONG"

The Black and the Gold

Now we'll give a cheer for Tubman,
For the school we love the most.
Evermore we'll sing her praises
And her name shall be our boast.
To the top we'll raise her colors
And her standards ever hold.
Then let us give a rousing cheer
For the Tubman Black and Gold!
Then let us give a rousing cheer
For the Tubman Black and Gold!

(Chorus)

So with voices loud and strong
To her name we'll raise a song;
For to her our hearts belong
With a love untold.
Then we'll cheer for Tubman High
May her spirit never die!
Victorious may fly
dear old Black and Gold!

Q. When were the sections of the Compromises of 1850?

A. What was the Compromise of 1850?

For Perfect Posture
The very first rule
Is slump down in
Your desk at school.

If you are not
a studious lass,
Put up books
and knit in class.

Waiting for the bus
With books piled high,
If it doesn't come soon
I'll surely die.

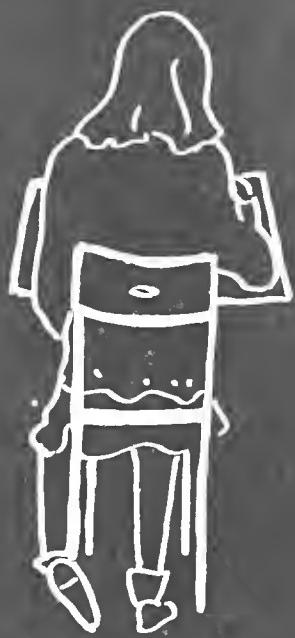

Alert and attentive
Sit up the front rows
But the far away pupil
Sleepier grows.

$$x+y=T$$
$$2+x+x^2+y^3$$
$$x+T+2+$$

The time that is worse
Than all the rest,
Is when sweet teacher says
"Girls, take a test."

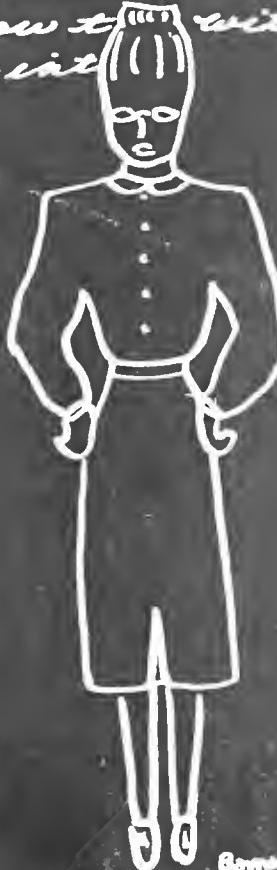

In school costume
I'm good on looks,
But style goes
When I haul my books.

And when to class
A lassie goes.
Twould ruin all to
have a shiny nose.

1. Exonerate Lulu Marshall
from all blame.
Follow the writer
read cat

If you like to see
teachers glare
Take out a comb
and fix your hair.
